Rabbi Miles Krassen devotes himself to mystical studies and practice, and to teaching a new paradigm for inner development and self-transformation within the Jewish tradition. He serves as Rabbi of Rain of Blessings, a non-profit organization for disseminating mystical Jewish teachings based on the spiritual insights of early Hasidism and Kabbalah. Reb Miles is also an author, musician and scholar who taught Jewish Studies at Oberlin College and Naropa University. A beloved teacher at Elat Chayyim, Aleph Kallah, and Ruach Haaretz, Reb Miles' classes and workshops are based on a deep love for traditional sources, familiarity with many non-Jewish wisdom traditions, and respect for the latest findings of contemporary scholarship and science.

Reb Miles will share wisdom on the essential nature of Teshuvah (rebooting and restoring our soul's operating system), as understood in Hasidic and Kabbalist tradition through teachings from Rebbe Nachman of Breslov, his main disciple, Rabbi Nathan of Nemirov, and from Hasidism's founder, the Ba'al Shem Tov. Our learning will be supported by practices to facilitate the Teshuvah and prepare us for Rosh HaShanah.
