

The Art of Storytelling

with Noa Baum

March 12-13, 2010

at Am Kolel Sanctuary & Renewal Center

www.sanctuaryretreatcenter.com

Noa Baum is an award-winning storyteller who combines performance art with practical applications of storytelling in community and education. She has won great acclaim for "Land Twice Promised" her performance piece of Israeli & Palestinian women's stories.

Join Us for a Shabbat of Stories, Inspiration & Community !

We are reducing the price for this wonderful event thanks to a generous donation!

Full/Assoc. Am Kolel Members - $90 includes Friday dinner, Saturday lunch & dinner
$75 includes Saturday lunch & dinner

Non-members - $130 includes Friday dinner, Saturday lunch & dinner
$95 includes Saturday lunch & dinner

Lodging (available Fri, and/or Sat) - $40 per night includes linens, towels, breakfast

Schedule of Events

Friday Evening: 7 pm, Kabbalat Shabbat and Dinner, 8:30 pm, Short Performances by Noa Baum

Saturday Morning: 9:30 am, Shabbat service, 11 am, "Hidden Treasures: Your Story as a Gift-Part 1"

Saturday afternoon: 12:30 pm, Kiddush Lunch, 3 pm, "Hidden Treasures: Your Story as a Gift-Part 2"

Saturday evening: 6 pm Dinner, 7:30 pm, More Storytelling with Noa Baum

Sanctuary is a spiritual retreat center in the beautiful Agricultural Reserve of Upper Montgomery County, MD—15 mi west of Rockville. We are under the auspices of Am Kolel (am-kolel.org), an independent Jewish Renewal community directed by Rabbi David Shneyer.

This event is co-sponsored by the jewishstudycenter.org 202.332.1221

For More Information or to Register:

Contact Gilah Rosner at gilah@am-kolel.org or 301-349-2799 by March 5th

